

ENFORCEMENT MECHANISMS

Steven Budlender

29 June 2016

Enforcement mechanisms apart from litigation

1. Public Information

Enforcement mechanisms apart from litigation

1. Public Information
2. Advice and Assistance

Enforcement mechanisms apart from litigation

1. Public Information
2. Advice and Assistance
3. Social Mobilisation and Advocacy

Key factors to maximise litigation prospects

Key factors to maximise litigation prospects

1. Proper organisations of clients

Key factors to maximise litigation prospects

1. Proper organisations of clients
2. Overall long-term strategy

Key factors to maximise litigation prospects

1. Proper organisations of clients
2. Overall long-term strategy
3. Co-ordination and information sharing

Key factors to maximise litigation prospects

1. Proper organisations of clients
2. Overall long-term strategy
3. Co-ordination and information sharing
4. Timing

Key factors to maximise litigation prospects

1. Proper organisations of clients
2. Overall long-term strategy
3. Co-ordination and information sharing
4. Timing
5. Research

Key factors to maximise litigation prospects

1. Proper organisations of clients
2. Overall long-term strategy
3. Co-ordination and information sharing
4. Timing
5. Research
6. Characterisation

Key factors to maximise litigation prospects

1. Proper organisations of clients
2. Overall long-term strategy
3. Co-ordination and information sharing
4. Timing
5. Research
6. Characterisation
7. Follow-up

The difficult choices

The difficult choices

1. How to deal with existing precedents?

The difficult choices

1. How to deal with existing precedents?
2. When not to run a case at all?

The difficult choices

1. How to deal with existing precedents?
2. When not to run a case at all?
3. How bold to be on remedy?

Procedural mechanisms

Procedural mechanisms

1. Standing rules

Procedural mechanisms

1. Standing rules
2. Costs regime

Procedural mechanisms

1. Standing rules
2. Costs regime
3. Opportunities for amici curiae